An Upcoming Artist

A music teacher, a singer, a music composer and most of all, a romantic at heart. This is what describes Minu Puri.

Music is her one and only passion, the association of which gives her happiness and peace within. She believes that music is the best cure for the mind, body, and soul.

She had her schooling in Kathmandu where she started her musical journey with piano lessons from Mr. Georgie Banks, father of Louis Banks. She graduated from Lady Shri Ram College ,New Delhi with an Economics Honours degree .Here she was a member of the Western Music Society and won the Fresher’s Contest.

After marriage she went to Lagos ,Nigeria and went on to further study Music. She joined Muson and gave her vocal exams as a mezzo soprano. She even sang an African song as part of the exam syllabus. She also gave her fifth grade practical piano exam, ABRSM, London. She believes that music has no language or barriers and could be the ‘ ONE ‘ uniting factor to bring love and peace in this world.
